Jesuit Catholic Tradition ✦

The Jesuit Catholic tradition here at Xavier transforms lives. In fact, the Jesuits have been educators for almost 500 years. This means our Xavier students value:

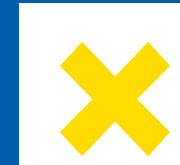

- + Challenging themselves and each other to think critically, ask questions, and maintain a spirit of learning.
- + Building community and learning from others through service.
- + Developing unique gifts and talents to positively impact the greater community.
- + Gaining global perspective through study abroad.

Some of the places Xavier students learn and serve abroad include:

- Peru • Namibia • Australia • Italy • Portugal
- Sweden • Scotland • Spain • Guatemala
- France • Japan

Our City: Cincinnati

Cincinnati is a city of 2 million people and has been a leading economic and cultural hub for more than 300 years – and it is the city we call home. This means our students have access to all that a large, entrepreneurial city has to offer, including:

- + 7 Fortune 500 companies: Procter & Gamble, Kroger, Western and Southern Financial Group, Cincinnati Financial, Fifth Third Bank, American Financial Group and Cintas
- + 4 nationally recognized hospitals
- + A major arts scene
- + 3 major league sports teams

Simply, this city is the perfect place to work and play.
