Report of Administration: Tim Brownlee, Co-Chair of Core Curriculum Revision

- Co-chair along with Dr. Bucher
 - Core discernment group: comprehensive review of university's core curriculum
 - Current version of core curriculum is 10 years old
 - Trying to gain understanding of how students experience the core
 - Data research
- Looking at goals for program and then assess how curriculum achieves those goals and whether that has been effective
- Specific glance at first year experience, transfer experience
- Currently in discovery phase, started in September (data collection, consultation) and resolving soon
 - Recommendation report to be proposed in January; determines if a change will be made to the curriculum or not
 - Threefold process before proposal

- Critiques from senators:
 - Repetitive --- two science courses?
 - Gen eds oftentimes more time consuming than major courses; higher stakes
 - Issues with advising; advisors should know more about the core
 - GOA as a waste of time
 - Grading policy
